Just for Me and You

Poco

Wish that I could come
With the mornin' sun
Shinin' through your window
I could be the oneTo open up your day
Ooh, words can't begin to say
Feelings that are hidden in
In such a special way
And they're just for me and youNighttime comes searhin' blindly
Been needin' some lovin'
I find me followin' my heart back to you
Ooh, how it reminds meThat I need no other lover
This feelin' is like no other
And though I can't be with you now
Let this song be another
That's just for me and youSo let my heart go on a-singin'
Let my song go on a-bringin'
To you lovin' that you know
Is in my heart and clingin'To days that passed on by Need we stop, though to wonder why
You know I love you, baby
The tears in my eyes are
Just for me and you
