

Hand Of Blood (Soundtrack NFS Most Wanted)

Bullet for My Valentine

Oh
There goes my Valentine again
I'm soaked in red for what she said
And now she's gone
Oh my God have I done it again
There's a pulse that is deafening
I can't help what I hear in my head,
It's the switch that I flip (when you said) Hand of blood
I don't want to feel, my heart is breaking
Hand of blood
I don't want to see, my life is burning I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take
Or are you blind and seeing nothing
(I saw you run)
I saw you run away
Is what I've done too much to take
Or are you scared of being nothing. There's a stain on my hand and it's red
Oh my god am I losing it
I can't help what I've done or I've said
?It's a button I push? (when you say) Hand of blood
I don't want to feel, my heart is breaking
Hand of blood
I don't want to see, my life is burning. I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take
Or are you blind and seeing nothing
(I saw you run)
I saw you run away
Is what I've done too much to take
Or are you scared of being nothing I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take
Or are you blind and seeing nothing
(I saw you run)
I saw you run away
Is what I've done too much to take
Or are you scared of being nothing
