

I've Got A Secret

Kate Nash

I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you
I've got a secret, I can't tell you

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

You would judge

Why can't we be friends?

We can't pretend you don't love me

You don't love me

Why can't I kiss her lips?

Why can't I be with him?

Homophobic pricks

Homophobic
