

Negotiations

Morten Myklebust

If it's negotiation
Or if it's starting over
If it's defining your relation
While not fully sober

You are on the losing side of endless love

And if you keep on trying
And just can't admit
That the ship is sinking
But you cannot jump ship

You are on the losing side of endless love
Losing side of endless love

If you say that you've changed
But only out of fear
See her face in other people
But she is never near

You are on the losing side of endless love

And if you think you're crazy
But only half as much
As you know that you would feel
If she were there to touch

You are on the losing side of endless love
Losing side of endless love
