

Do You Believe in Love

Michael English

After we have listened to
Everything there is left to say
Watching the intended reality
    Slowly fade away
    Why is all we desire
    Taken from our hand
Every dream is drifting away
    There is understanding
For every-one who has ears to hear
No more looking over your shoulder
    For someone to appear
    Maybe you should be looking
    Right into His eyes
So say goodbye to someone else's lies
I've got to know Do you believe in love
    In all the things
    You've searched the world to find
    But know nothing of
Through the sun, through the fire and rain
There is One who won't desert you again
    (There is One who'll never hurt you)
If you believe in love Some days I get up in the morning
    And I wish I wasn't there
    Life seems so incredibly lonely
    When no one seems to care
    But I've found somewhere
    Within this heart a friend for life
To hold me close till all my fears subside
I've got to know Do you believe in love
    In all the things
    You've searched the world to find
    But know nothing of
Through the sun, through the fire and rain
There is One who won't desert you again
    (There is One who'll never hurt you)
If you believe in love Don't you go, don't you go
    Asking questions anymore
    Don't you go, don't you go
    Asking questions anymore

The answer lies waiting for you
Do you believe in love
In all the things
You've searched the world to find
But know nothing of
Through the sun, through the fire and rain
There is One who won't desert you again
(There is One who'll never hurt you)
If you believe in love
