Supreme Beings of Leisure

When you feel divided
Lost from source
When your anchor is drifting
Without a course Remember you're Divine
Heaven's for the pure design
Remember you're Divine
Brilliant stars will shine, they shine
We are, we are Divine When the dark night has faded
To morning light
Like a first kiss you crash
Into delight Return to that place with me
Of perfect luxury
Imagine that peace you see
Like eternally Remember you're Divine
Heaven's for the pure design
Remember you're Divine
Brilliant stars will shine, they shine
We are, we are Divine Touch me sunshine
Divine
Filled with blood wine
Divine Remember at last
Who you really are
Remember at last
Who you really are We are one and Divine
We are all intertwined
Just start as we dance
In space [Incomprehensible] Remember you're Divine
Heaven's for the pure design
Remember you're Divine
Brilliant stars will shine, they shine
We are, we are Divine Remember you're Divine
(Touch me sunshine)
Remember you're Divine
(Filled with blood wine)
Divine Remember you're Divine
(Touch me sunshine)
Divine
Remember you're Divine

(Filled with blood wine)
Divine
