

Innosense

Darwin's Waiting Room

I'm taken away by the sound of your voice
Like a snake to a charmer irresistible force
You turn me into a dog on a leash
And I'm trapped in this world alone I've waited so long to get away
Time passes and all I want is to be held by you to touch you
I always seem to taste you
But you're gone and I stay
It's all the reasons I try to cling to, to hate you
I'm always brought down by you
It's a shame, turn away
Now my grief's in today
