

Grace

Kate Havnevik

I'm on my knees
Only memories
I left for me to hold.
Don't know how, but I'll get by
Slowly pull myself together.
I'll get through this There's no escape
So keep me safe
This feels so unreal. Nothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it seems
Turn my grief to grace. I feel the cold
Loneliness unfold
From another world
Come what may
I won't fade away, but I know I might change Nothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it was
Turn my grief to grace. Nothing comes easily where do I begin
Nothing can bring me peace
I've lost everything. I just want to feel your embrace.
I love you.
I love you.
I love you.
I love you.
I love you.
