Voice Of The Voiceless

Rage Against The Machine

Come on, check it
Through Steel walls your voice blastin' on True rebel, my brother Mumia I reflect upon
You be the spark that set the prairie fires on
Make the masses a mastodon path to trample the fascists on
At fifteen exposed Phillys finest killing machine
Boots and mad guns they pacify ya young
Cause and effect smell the smoke and the breeze
My panther, my brother we are at war until you're free
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
Yet the powerful got nervous 'cause he refused to be their servant
He spit truth that burned like black churches
Prose and verses a million poor in hearses
Watch the decision of Dred Scott as it reverses
Long as the rope is tied around Mumias neck
Let there be no rich white life we bound to respect
Cause and effect can't ya smell the smoke in the breeze
My panther, my brother we are at war until you're free
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
You'll never silence the voice of the voiceless
And Orwell's hell a terror era coming through
But this little brothers watching you too
And Orwell's hell a terror era coming through
But this little brothers watching you too, watching you too
