Satellite to Satellite

Blue System

Ohh, baby can you tell me, is it love or just a game?
I'm lying in a bed of fire, ohh, baby, do you feel the same?
It's a long, long way to go but I never let you know
Ohh, relax baby, love will turn out fineCall me satellite to satellite my sweet taboo
You're my teacher I'll come to school
Who wants to love you forever and ever
It's written in the windCall me satellite to satellite, ohh, it's a tough world
You're my teacher for all my love girl
You're my sweetest, my sweetest desire
Take me in your arms tonightGoodbye heartache and good vibration
It's a story for generation
B-b-baby come hold me tonightOhh, time will wait for no one, I can't make a blind girl see
I will take the train of silence on the wings of destiny
It's an endless rhapsody, what you give and what you feel
Ohh, relax baby, have some fun tonightCall me satellite to satellite my sweet taboo
You're my teacher I'll come to school
Who wants to love you forever and ever
It's written in the windCall me satellite to satellite, ohh, it's a tough world
You're my teacher for all my love girl
You're my sweetest, my sweetest desire
Take me in your arms tonightGoodbye heartache and good vibration
It's a story for generation
B-b-baby come hold me tonightCall me satellite to satellite my sweet taboo
You're my teacher I'll come to school
Who wants to love you forever and ever
It's written in the wind
