

Got to Wake Up

Baxter

I will do it again, I will capture my pride
I already lost it somehow
I'm not strong enough now to behave like this
What about if I fail, if I'm gonna be down
What I have to believe I'm better off soonI gotta wake up soon, I gotta see through this
I gotta wake up soon, 'cuz what did I do wrong?
'Cuz I'm holding on to someone who's gone
(Gotta wake up soon, gotta see through this)I will do it again, I will catch up myself
I'm not sure I'll be back
I'm not strong enough now to go on like this
I'll be there where I'm safe, when I'm ready and done
I'll be there just to say, "I'm sorry I went" I'm spinning off to let go, I want something more
I got something that I have to look through once again
I gotta wake up soon, I gotta see through this
I gotta wake up soon, I do something wrong
