

Cromlech

Darkthrone

    Into the abyss I fall
    And dark is the Reich of the dead
        A portal to reach to the side
        Where bodies fall from the sky
        Solitude and peace of mind
        Entombed in Cromlech
        Yes, flee over the river Styx
        And join the dead with joy
        An ocean of blasphemy
        Heathenish realm
    And "do what thou wilt" as decoy
        My prophecy is true
        We'll all make it through
