Back Into the Rain

It's Alive

Don't let me run away
From the chains that bind me
I know I've gotta stay
To keep my world from crashingIt's something that I know I'll figure out in time
Some solid ground that I've made mine
But time and time again it seems
I'm falling back, I'm falling back to youBack into the rain I fall again
Ever since the day I met you
Everything is gonna fade away
Maybe I can just hold on
Into the sun I've gone
I'm never gonna be alone
Back into the rain I fall again
Again, oh, ohI will not fade away
From this world that has bruised me
It's easy to decay
From the things that run through meBut even if I stand alone I'll find my way
I'll live to see the brighter days
I'm fine, I'm fine, I'm fine
Cause I'm not crawling back, not crawling back to youBack into the rain I fall again
Ever since the day I met you
Everything is gonna fade away
Maybe I can just hold on
Into the sun I've gone
I'm never gonna be alone
Back into the rain I fall again
Again, oh, ohIf I breathe the breath you take
Well, I'm no good, but you're no better
If I spoke the way you speak
Well, I'm no good, but you're no better
I'd never let myself not feel
I'd never question what was realBack into the rain I fall again
(back into the rain I fall again)
Back into the rain I fall again
(maybe I can just hold on)
Into the sun I've gone
I'm never gonna be alone
No, I'm never gonna fade away
Away, no, noI won't fall again

(Back into the rain I fall again)
I won't fall again
Into the sun I've gone
I'm never gonna be alone
No, I'm never gonna fade away
No, I'm never gonna fade away
