Bands With Managers

Pedro the Lion

Bands with managers are going places
Bands with messy hair and smooth white facesBut you don't believe when I say
That it won't be alright, alrightVans with fifteen passengers are rolling over
But I trust T. William Walsh and I'm not afraid to dieBut you don't believe when I say
That it won't be alright, alrightThat it won't be alright, alright
'Cause it won't be alright, alright
