Let It Be Sung

Jack Johnson

There must be a forecast
That you won't let yourself see
So you keep watching as you're drifting
Sail away from what you need
Why don't I just give you
Everything you'll take from me?
'Cuz nobody owns anything
And everyone is free
That's why this ship is going down
Desperately I need a sound
A song to sing so we could carry on
Just let it be sung so we could carry on
God fearing people
At the bottom of the sea
Walking without lanterns
As the stones skip over thee
Hi ho, away the sail the sea
Hi ho, be gone 'cuz Lanchester's done
The waltz above the ocean
This ship is going down
Desperately, I need a sound
A song to sing so we could carry on
Just let it be sung so we might carry on
Let it be sung so we
Let it be sung so we could carry on
I've heard all of the stories
And in them, I've put my trust
You gotta touch the bottom
Before you can come back up
And I know what
Your heart is telling you
'Cuz my heart's telling me
The same thing too
This ship is going down
Desperately, I need a sound
A song to sing so we could carry on
Just let it be sung so we might carry on
Let it be sung so we
Let it be sung so we could carry on
