

I Want To Belong To You

Katie Herzig

Have you ever seen such kindness
Such resigned delight all in one glance?
Right as you pass me, I watch, you see
You smile, I breathe air in my chest
I'm trying my best Oh, the sun left me so quickly
I am stuck under the moon
I wanna belong to you I pray no one will find you
Oh, I'll stay right where I am
Till you come back don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin Suddenly light on my feet
With a sweet rearrange of the day
Everything's changin'
One quick exchange
It's not the same kind of goodbye
You're gone with a sigh The sun left me so quickly
I am stuck under the moon
I wanna belong to you I pray no one will find you
Oh, I'll stay right where I am
Till you come back don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin I wanna belong to you I pray no one will find you
Oh, I'll stay right where I am
Till you come back don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin
