City, Spark, Fire

The Sonnets

I bet you traveled down from the sky looked just like a sparkling diamond in a black dress, with a glass of wine that she broke as she shook.
I toss and turn because I lost the hole in my heart alike the stars come as rages Iâ€™m coming down and I fold my wings out of dawn Now that sheâ€™s gone
And she turned me on

Do you wanna see me tonight when the stars come out and the city light surrounds us in a fire that makes us high?

We drank in tune out of love and sang out in bars dodgy and cold out on the patio Sparks from candles was all we had to stay warm left there at dawn with no alcohol

No longer with you now floating around on Beder Heights Itâ€™s lonely riding on buses make it home fast mistraced lanes and such through the traffic

Do you wanna see me tonight when the stars come out and the city light surrounds us
in a fire that makes us high?

Stay with me tonight
when the stars come out and the city light surrounds us in a fire that makes us high
