

Born to Give

Better Than a Thousand

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My heart is covered; passion always tugging at my mind
Although we search for freedom, It seems that we get more confined
Narcissism, fucking prison-selfishness the crime
Shackled br our cruety, but I'll practice being kind
BORN TO GIVE
We take, we fucking take!
BORN TO GIVE
But we create our fate! I know the more we server ourselves we're never stisfied
And if you're brought up sensitive they'll probably deride
You must choose your destiny, for only you decide
So let the people criticize-I know I've fucking tried BORN TO GIVE
We take, we fucking take!
BORN TO GIVE
But we create our fate! I tried to be so into me
But it turns out so unsatisfying I want to be the person that I know I am deep inside
I may not seem so cool, but all that shit's a lie
Trow away my ego, and all my foolish pride
This life is meant for giving, so I'll never fucking hide BORN TO GIVE
We take, we take, we take, we take, we take!
BORN TO GIVE
And we create our fate! We must learn from our mistakes
