

To Have and To Hold

Takida

You're forgiveness is all mine
All you said were lies
Your deceiving eyes Yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm all out of love
Yeah, yeah, yeah
For you it's all a blur You kill my only trust and it hurts
Say goodbye
I cannot breath, all turns red
My hate for you has grown strong
You see, I know what you said
No one to have and to hold Aaaaahh ahhh All our heart and weak soul
You deserve nothing left
No one to have and to hold We can give our own life
I know it's on your mind
Down for everytime Yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm all out of love
Yeah, yeah, yeah
For you it's all a blur You kill my only trust and it hurts, it hurts, yes it hurts
I cannot breath all turns red
My hate for you has grown strong
You see, I know what you said
No one to have and to hold No one answers the phone
No end in night
And I'm here standing alone
And your still wondering way screaming theres no one home
You're bleeding You kill my only trust and it hurts
It hurts, it hurts, it hurts I cannot breath all turns red
My hate for you has grown strong
You see, I know what you said
No one to have and to hold No one to have
No one to have and to hold
