

Who Are You?

Skindred

I feel it's a crime
the way they crush your hopes and dreams
The hurtful words they lay
Reflecting on the past Who are you, to tell me I can't do it?
Who are you? It don't accomplish nothing.
Who are you, to kill my seeds before they grow?
Who are you, that you criticize? You blew my world away with all that was spoken.
Turned my blue skies into grey.
Don't but you want graves we lay. Oh Who are you, to tell me I can't do it?
Who are you? It don't accomplish nothing.
Who are you, to kill my seeds before they grow?
Who are you, that you criticize? (Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me.?)
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?) Who are you, to tell me I can't do it?
Who are you? It don't accomplish nothing.
Who are you, to kill my seeds before they grow?
Who are you, that you criticize? (Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me.?)
Don't do it to me. Why you wanna do that to me?) Shine into the dark illuminate, you can't kill my light
Flame can't be extinguished its to great, can't kill my light Shine into the dark illuminate, can't kill my light
Flame can't be extinguished its too great, can't kill my light Shine, illuminate
Shine, illuminate
Shine into the dark illuminate, you can't kill my light
Flame can't be extinguished its to great, can't kill my light Shine uh-oh uh-oh
