Unsaid Goodbyes

Halo Friendlies

wasn't such a bad time for us cause we were young i think about the good times driving under moonlight low tides and lullabyes do you remember it tooand i was on the telephone telling you to come home and settle the score didn't i try and tell you of passing time and unsaid goodbyessitting in the back seat of life joy ride we know we couldn't get bored following our dreams down the path of life and we don't know what do we do when we get thereand i was on the seventh floor shouting at the window let's settle the score
and unsaid goodbyes
