

Black Tide

Black Tusk

In dark water, now I drown
In these black depths there's no sound
    Current drags me to my death
    The sea stealing my last Breath
Swallowed by the tide, no one hears my cries
    No sun left in sky, can't be how I die
    Kick and claw to save myself
    Through this fight, I'll meet my fate
    My lungs fill, there is no air, this is the end, now I'm aware
At peace with this, my soul roams, the black tide, will take me home
