

Rat Race

Raine Maida

One, two, picking up the pace
Three, four, rat is in the race
Im on the land, Im on the chase
Im on the hunt, Ive got no time to waste
One clue gotta take the bait
Burst through all the barricades
Its got teeth, its got fangs
Its got me in the palm of its hands
I said, I want you
I said, I want you
Oh, do you know what I mean?
Oh, do you know what I mean?
My eyes are hollow
My bones beggin' for sleep
I wont make it through tomorrow
Im useless with these wooden wings
This love, gotta break it down
Chew it up, spit it out
I dont know where it could be
I dont know how it found me
Arms wide crucified, crucifix
It's gonna fix it tonight
She said, it's coming for me
I threw away my church key
My eyes are hollow
My bones beggin' for sleep
I wont make it through tomorrow
Im useless with these wooden wings
Ill ride away
On a cloud made out of hopeless treasure
Ill smile and wave
At his golden gates
