Destroy What Destroys You

Last Lights

Johnny's pissed of at the institute of social oppression he's had enough & he can't take no more johnny's so tired of being held down by the system the rich get rich and the poor stay poor johnny bought a cookbook and he locked himself inside his bedroom now he's got a back full of pipebombs johnny took a gasp as he sliped on his ski-mask now he's in the bank and he's singing this song i won't be another content slave that you opress because i crave for the annihilation of your existance feel my hate feel my resistance and the system has brought to its knees then i heard him scream...
