

Something More

Hangnail

What do you take me for?
You think I'm nothing more than who you think I am
I tried to live the lie, I let that lifestyle die
And now I'm something more Now I've got a peace of mind
There's just no better way
And if I should die tonight
That would be alright I'm gonna try real hard, no matter what it takes
And even if I fail I know that when life's done
And I'm accounted for, I lived it to the full Now I've got a peace of mind
There's just no better way
And if I should die tonight
That would be alright
