

Fool

Over the Rhine

Fool, fool me
I'm just a sentimental fool it happened again
When I remembered you and all that we've been through Fool truly
I know this world it can be so cruel, I won't let you go, oh Fool use me
This is the part that I can't refuse just do what you do
My heart's becoming true it aches to make room for you
Fool pursue me
To Heaven above or to Hell below just don't let go, oh Fool me
I'm just a sentimental fool, I can't let you go, oh, oh
