Your Demon

Kids In the Way

The curtains closin' and nobody knows
Where shes goin', she runs into the night alone
The moon will guide her without a trace
I cant try to find her 'cause I dont know her faceI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through meI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through meThe hours turnin', nobody sleeps
Her heart is burnin' to load her veins with what she needs
The moon will guide her into a place
I wont try to fight her cause I dont know her faceI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through meI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through meLife on the high is your alibi
And Im tired of you runnin' from the truth
Life on the high is your alibi
And Im tired of you runnin' from the truthI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through meI feel it, your demon
I see the daggers comin' from your eyes
And they cut right through me
Cut right through me
