Laughing Lover

Blitzen Trapper

Crucify the blinding sky for light
Love's lover is like a lightning rod
Howling wind has been heard in my head
Dead dreamers in a burning carYour mind is a diamond blue and green
Shining out through your eyes like falling leaves
When you open your mouth a swarm of bees will appearMy dear steer clear, have no fear
For you know just what they call you here:
You're the laughing lover covered in tearsSteal away the sun, the moon and stars
Start simple with a woman's voice
Wisdom lingers on the fingers of the fortress
Like a lazy ghostYour mind is a dragon of dying bird
Like to circle the flames singing words unheard
When you're death like a thread pulls you in and your lover herds
My dear its clear have no fearFor you know just what they call you here: you're the laughing lover covered in tearsSanctify the blinding sky for light weaves wonders out of bits of clay
Howling wind has been heard in my head breaking bread, but in a gentle wayYour mind is a diamond blue and green
Shining out through your eyes like falling leaves
When you open your mouth a swarm of bees will appearMy dear its clear have no fear
For you know just what they call you here you're the laughing lover covered in tears
