

Ain't Giving Up (Acoustic Live Session)

D'Sound

ain't giving up Mother, mother where's the nice and warm?
Try to hide that my face is torn in the evening heavy thoughts are born- will there be no dawn? Baby girl doesn't want to grow Call you up before the late night show Mother tell me I don't have to go- will there be no dawn? Ain't giving up just sleeping in I'm too soft to be broken I know there is a will that's yet to be awoken Ask me how I feel
I say I'll be OK But it hurts so bad when it hurts so bad
And it makes me mad when it hurts so bad Going crazy over little stuff Having everything but not enough everybody's saying "you're so tough"- will there be no dawn?
