All Right

Another Idiot

Going out one night, thereÂ´s something coming through Leaving behind the feeling that thereÂ´s somebody new
In the afternoon there are things that I donÂ´t wanna say
But I canÂ´t help this feeling anyway
Walking together under the star light
I can feel that this is the night
That things will be alright
But anyway somethingâ€™s not quite right

Please donÂ´t go, weÂ´ll never know
Never find out why
IÂ´m alright, we never fight
YouÂ´ll never see me cry
Please donâ€™t go, and so you know
IÂ´ve walked this road before

We are so far ahead that long ago I should have seen your bed
But in the end I wonÂ´t sleep tight, Â´cause I know things will never be alright

I just wanna puke, I just wanna be
I wanna know whatÂ´s inside of me
I wanna know what you feel
I wanna know that youÂ´re for real
I wanna be in your life and let you know that IÂ´m alright
That things are what theyÂ´re supposed to be, that itÂ´s just you and me
Now I feel so fucking messed up, should have gone to bed when I drank my last cup
IÂ´m fucking drunk but itÂ´s alright, these are things I wouldnÂ´t say in daylight
Little mistakes are hard to cover up, but in the end itÂ´s all been drunk up
LetÂ´s go to bed when weÂ´re all done, your little game is not that fun

We are so far ahead that long ago I should have seen your bed
But in the end I wonÂ´t sleep tight, Â´cause I know things will never be alright

I really got to piss, but IÂ´ll write this line and this song
Now I know that nothing makes sense
But I wonÂ´t go over the fence
Â´cause in the end it wonÂ´t be right
I only know because IÂ´veâ€¦

Done everything right so please donÂ´t go

I know that IÂ´ve messed up before
But at least you should have talked to me
Then maybe things would be as theyÂ´re meant to be

We are so far ahead that long ago I should have seen your bed
But in the end I wonÂ´t never sleep tight, Â´cause I know things will never be alright
We are so far ahead that long ago I should have seen your bed
But in the end I wonÂ´t never sleep tight, Â´cause I know things will never be alright
