A Farewell Letter

A Farewell Letter (by Hepcazz)

One school day in my teen time - her lightning blew my mind
No other girl was almost - so beautiful and fine
Imagine it's a good time - will ask her for a date
She tells me she's got no time - I ask her mom and dad
Their answer was frustrating - she lied to me and I don't' know why

Explanation, explanation, please tell me why

I could not forget her - still see her in my mind
No other girl was almost - so beautiful and fine
Imagine it's a good time - I called her by the phone
She was not very friendly - What could I do but moan
Her answer was frustrating - no heartiness and I don't' know why

Explanation, explanation, please tell me why
Solo
Explanation, explanation, please tell me why

I could not forget her - still see her in my mind
No other girl was almost - so beautiful and fine
Imagine there is no time - I think I have no chance
No one here can see me - I create my secret plans
I write this farewell letter - oh Lord, please help while my heart goes by Explanation, explanation, oh Lord, please help!
