Let Down - Mariachi Flor De Toloache

Your love was never more than an illusion
I thought belonged to me
And to you I was the gold you saw
At the bottom of, At the bottom of the stream

You were contented knowing it was there and always, always would be As long as you could hold for a second before it slipped free

[Bridge]

I can't blame you entirely
I was well aware that she Had a part of you to keep
But he came and tried to force
And didn't that love take its course?
I can't give you my heart because I can't share yours

I can't say you let me down any less than I, any less than I let you down (x2)

[I don't want to butcher the spanish....but there's a spanish verse here <3]

I can't say you let me down any less than I, any less than I let you down (x2)

I came around what was rightfully aground
It's not fair but I can't share (x2)

Well the Prince says this queen's crowned
The prince says his queen's crowned (x6)
Ohhhhh

I can't say you let me down any less than I, any less than I let you down (x2)
