Systems

Shiffley

Iâ€™m feeling on the down
I'm calculating what went wrong
In trying to remove myself
I've been holding out for something more

But maybe that's a lie
Or maybe I'm just shy

I'm setting myself up
I've got the answer in my palm
I'm slowly turning self-aware
Systems are down, itâ€™s getting cold, Iâ€™m going home

I swear I've cracked the code
You're wired in my circuit board
And even with my systems down
I'm picking up a signal now

I feel it in my pulse
But what was my next move?

I'm setting myself up
I've got the answer in my palm
I'm slowly turning self-aware
Systems are down, it's getting cold, Iâ€™m going home
Systems are down, it's getting cold, Iâ€™m going homeâ€¦

Systems are downâ€¦
And I'm setting myself upâ€¦
I'm setting myself up nowâ€¦
