Sky Father

6 Day Riot

I left this earth today
Didn't look back at my terrain
Sold my possessions at sea
Followed the fortune of destinyI knelt before the king Stared with wonder at what life may bring
And filled with confidence
I set upon my close legendOh Devine Soldier, life taker of this land
Oh Devine Soldier life taker will command,
So do as you willI travelled far and wide a journey made with no compromise and climbing port to peak I took the passage of which you speak
I lay on sheets of gold
I stared at eyes that hold this world
And with each prophesy
I took my leap, my leap to be
