Heart to Heart

Ambrosia

Heart to heart, soul to soul
Feeling lost everywhere I go
Love to love or hold to hold
Choose your cost be it pain or be it goldAint there nothin in this world you can count on?
Aint there nothin in this world to believe?
Save a gypsys song when shes singin
With a violin sweetHeart to heart, soul to soul
Feeling lost everywhere I goIf only, my love, you would try, love
You could reach me long enough to teach me
All in time, love will we find love
But it taunts me you dont seem to want me
Why does your love haunt me everywhere I go?Heart to heart, soul to soul
Feeling lost everywhere I go, everywhere I go
