Just Another Lonely Night

Earth, Wind And Fire

Morning
(Morning)
Seems to come so slow
Knowing
(Knowing)
How I need this warming glow

Foolishly, I've made you cry
Confident, you never say goodbye
Darling, that's the reason why

That even in a crowd, laughing out loud, I'm lonely
(Lonely)
For I love you only and without you
Every night's just another lonely night

Falling
(Just another)
Tears are falling from my eyes
I'm calling
(Just another)
Out your name, tearful sigh

How I pray it's not too late
All my life for you I wait
Just call me I won't hesitate
For when you left you took the best of me

I love you, can't you see?
Since you've been gone
Every night's just another lonely night

(Just another)
Since you've been gone my life is so lonely, baby, baby
It's just a
(Just another)
Even my sun is hoping

(Just another)
Oh, it's all I need is you only

(Just another)
I'm just no good without you, baby
I'm just a lonely, lonely
