Most Beautiful

Elmo Hope

Wide open eye
You serious? You delirious?
Kissing chaos
Have you got a heart?You could really lose it in the Super-People-Mart
You're the most beautiful thing I know
And the most beautiful thing is
When I hear your heart beatWill human be dumb and free
Or some amazing catastrophe?
Never too scared to bare
To care to running to the riotWhere the moment meets
The most beautiful thing I know
And the most beautiful thing
Something new, I dunno why?I know all there is, I know
Where is your how?
Holding up your frown
A prop to stop you smiling nowHeaven or the heather
Or the miracles of weather
But you listen to
The most beautiful thing I knowAnd the most beautiful thing, darling
Is where you hear your heart
Beat is, when I hear your heart
