Answers We'll Never Get

Bayside

Wonder if I said the right things
Would this wound have bled so much
Words are all that we have left for usWonder why you had to be in such a rush
I'll march into my graveyard and bury you now
The last man standing
But not the last one laughingWhile worms eat your body
And the fog covers your grave
I'll still be trying
To get your laugh out of my headI just need some more
Just need some more time
It's not how we should say goodbye
Wasted my timeAnd I thought you were stronger
Than ones before
When I said that I needed
Some timeI didn't expect you to quit
Now that I lost you
Feels like I lost myself
I found regretAnswers we'll never get
