Who Can I Be Now?

David Bowie

Everybody's raised in blindness
Everybody knows it's true
Everybody feels that everything is real
Any body's point of viewNobody can break their bondage
Everyone can feel their chains
But even in my life, I knew you found your sight
And nothing would be quite the samePlease help me
Who can I be now? You found me
Who can I be? Fell apart, you found me
Now can I be now? You found me
Now can I be real?
Can I be real?
(Somebody real)Hmm, if it's all a vast creation
Putting on a face that's new
Someone has to see, a role for him and me
Someone might as well be youUp in heaven, any angel
Writes a special game to play
Oh oh, could we, could we
Make a star to snatch their angels, boy?
Played your role for every dayPlease help me
Who can I be now? You found me
Who can I be? Fell apart, you found me
Now can I be now? You found me
Now can I be real? Can I be?Who can I be now? You found me
Who can I be? Fell upon, you found me
Now can I be now? You found me
Now can I, can I be real? Can I be real?Can I be real? Can I be?
(Who)
Can I be? Yeah, yeah
(Now)
Yeah, can I be?
(Now)
You found me
(Now)
Can I be free?
