Chase the Blues Away (Album Version)

Tim Buckley

Well, come along and walk with me
And learn the songs that lovers sing
When they believeWe'll dance along the river's edge
Just arm and arm along the moonlit shore
The midnight criesWell, I just came to chase
The blues away
For a whileJust like a child, you'll cling to me
From every sound along
That rushes nearIt's just the breeze
That licks your skin and rubs your breast
And as we lay our river's flow away
Your woman fearWell, I just came to chase
The blues away
For a whileWith the morning sun, we'll wake
And lift our eyes and watch the eagle fly
Up mountain highThen on his wings, our love will climb
And never fail until he soars and dives
Oh, he'll take your breath awayOh, I just came to chase
The blues away
For a while

Songwriters
TIM BUCKLEYPublished by Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/