

Plunk Song

Tegan and Sara

Granted that I'm so often layers, I'm wired Overcome overdone, my fate is on fire
Eat the sludge and dance to screaming in my head
I'm so happy that we're friends, me and you So here I am
Simple and upside down
Corner stone left in the millions
Heavy in my pocket you look good to me
My pants are huge and chocolate covered Hey I'm just like you
Maybe I'm sloppy and blue
But hey I'm just like you
Except I've got nothing to prove But we're headstrong tonight
Beating through the rainbows of right
Gold covered prisms of light
Make us headstrong tonight Witchcraft haunt and I'm slowly crumbling and moving magic dreams and mothers whisper nice
Hell is my shirt and I melted slow above heaven
Wet to the bone, will you dry me off before I freeze? But here I am bum as a drunk and a lovers
I said that I have loved no others
She goes to the shows not to be afraid
But she knows that it will never be the same Hey I'm just like you
Maybe I'm sloppy and blue
But hey I'm just like you
Except I've got nothing to prove But we're headstrong tonight
Beating through the rainbows of right
Gold covered prisms of light
Make us headstrong tonight Headstrong tonight
Beating through the rainbows of right
Gold covered prisms of light
Make us headstrong tonight Hey I'm just like you
Maybe I'm sloppy and blue
But hey I'm just like you
Except I've got nothing to prove But we're headstrong tonight
Beating through the rainbows of right
Gold covered prisms of light
Make us headstrong tonight Hey I'm just like you
Maybe I'm sloppy and blue
But hey I'm just like you
Except I've got nothing to prove But we're headstrong tonight

Hey I'm just like...
