Dancing All Alone

Solomon

INTRO:
Last night
I played our song
I was dancing, all aloneVERSE 1:
Stolen moments
Sneak through the halls
Happy segments
Framed on a wall
I still sleep in our bed
Replaying over what I said
Still I can't sleep without the light onPRE-HOOK 1:
Because I need ya baby
Ain't been myself lately
Was thinkin', maybe we could get together
Walk or talk?
What ever that you really really want want want
I just ain't seen you in a long long long
Time
Guess we ran out of time
Was I late, you early?
Wanna let you know you at night night night
You cross my mindHOOK:
Last night
I played our song
I was dancing, all alone
Pretending that my hands we're yours
But I wasn't sure
I was dancing all aloneVERSE 2:
Papa was
A rolling stone
The reason why
I'm cool bein' alone
Pat out the bruises
And cover the scars
I swear to God you'll never see me fall apartPRE-HOOK 2:So what you mean you need some space?
Why you keep pushin' me away?
I try and stay but you don't talk
You just stand there look lost
I'll stand here all day day day

Waiting for you to say say say
I made a mistake
Uh oh
We was supposed to grow old
Luther tellin' us a "House Is Not A Home"
So when you comin' home?HOOK:
Last night
I played our song
I was dancing, all alone
Pretending that my hands we're yours
But I wasn't sure
I was dancing all aloneRAP:
Like clockwork it begins
From lovers back to friends
You blame me, I blame him
Now I take the car keys straight to the Benz
My hands around ya throat, can you feel this?
Punching holes in the walls, but neighbors hear shit
You say Im young, keep bringin' up old shit
Letting outside forces in, fuck ya friends
Now it's back back back to the future
Back to the blueprint
Back to the basics
Back when we'd claim it
Back when we'd face it
Back when it wasn't about a dollar but it made sense
I'm just sayin' I'm waiting to exhale
And you was spendin' what sex sells
The cost too high, so I bid farewell
Now ya feel me? BrailleHOOK:
Last night (Last night)
I played our song
I was dancing, all alone (I was all alone)
Pretending that my hands we're yours
But I wasn't sure (So unsure)
I was dancing all alone
