when you were my lover
you and i discovered all the magic of a world unknown now i have uncovered the presence of another the passion seed from which our love was grown and now it's clear to see he resembles you and me one thing is certain i know in my heart wherever he goes â€“ we'll all be a part

(chorus)
of love, and life we'll be for no matter how far you go within your heart you'll always know of love and life (mmmm) just remember this i am sending you this kiss of love and life

funny how the time flies when something in your heart dies knowing that your own has gone astray then, life is not so breezy or, even close to easy feeling that today will by the day that he'll walk through the door and smile just as before when you were so young and only a boy i kept sayin to myself â€“ give him all the joy

(chorus 2x)
