

Waiting Just For You

Blackmore's Night

They say that it's always darkest right before the dawn
They say that I must be strong just to carry on
But they don't know that I would wait my whole lifetime through Because you know, my love, that I'd be waiting just for you...There you stood, amazing shining for the whole world to see
And I knew an angel had been sent to watch over me...So I'll be here waiting, hoping, dreaming, loving you
Because I know, my love, that you do love me tooThey say that it's always darkest right before the dawn
They say that I must be strong just to carry on
Because you know, my love, that I'd be waiting just for you...There you stood, amazing shining for the whole
world to see
And I knew an angel had been sent to watch over me...So I'll be here waiting, hoping, dreaming, loving you
Because I know, my love, that you do love me too
