

All comes to an end

Xtrunk

What strange dream tonight
Like the devil soaked in my blood
Checked up through the mirror
This morning I won't see anyone
Carefully dressed, my face is pale
This morning I can't remember anymore
Today cannot be the same
Cause in this damned morning
I can't feel anything else but
That pain in my aching veins
All comes to an end
Night overcomes and
I can't rewrite the game
It's my black curtain
Dark clouds overrun my mind
And now I would like to say
This state of fear for the unknown
Is an estate of solitude and disillusion
All comes to an end
Night overcomes and
I can't rewrite the game
It's my black curtain
Today cannot be the same
Cause in this damned morning
I can't feel anything else but
