Violent Dreams

Crystal Castles

Won't you let me?
Well, you know I can drive
Please, let me take your car
Won't you let me take your car?Two policemen in the car behind
Not on duty but they stopped
And just before the car caught fire
Bravely they pulled her offBravely they pulled her off
Bravely they pulled her off
Bravely they pulled her offIf I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd ratherIf I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd ratherWon't you let me?
Well, you know I can drive
Please, let me take your car
Won't you let me take your car?Two policemen in the car behind
Not on duty but they stopped
And just before the car caught fire
Bravely they pulled her offBravely they pulled her off
Bravely they pulled her off
Bravely they pulled her offIf I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd ratherIf I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
If I were you Chrissie I'd rather
