

Loose Talk

Jean Shepard

So long we've been married, last burden we've carried
Though fate kept us humble and made our love true
But plans that we'd make up, someone seems to break up
Oh, darling, what else can we do? We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear
Some place where we can live a life of our own
For I know you love me and happy we could be
If some folks would leave us alone When I go out walking there's lots of loose talking
They say we're unhappy and we'll break apart
But darling, it's not true because I still love you
And I do it all of my heart We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear
Some place where we can live a life of our own
For I know you love me and happy we could be
If some folks would leave us alone They say you are leaving, that you are deceiving
But you tell me they say the same about me
But we'll show them there on that loose talk we'll do harm
And hope that's the truth they will see We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear
Some place where we can live a life of our own
For I know you love me and happy we could be
If some folks would leave us alone
If some folks would leave us alone
