Still a Stranger

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Hauntingly familiar words come to me
It's happend all before
You still kill my soulThe space I hold you in
A secret memory
I'll teach you all my sin
You reach for all and moreStill A Stranger, hidden in the dark
Still A Stranger, a lost and killing soulIt kills my every thought
It sucks the life from me
I wake to only find
I've lost my fucking mindThe space I hold you in
A secret memory
I'll teach you all my sin
You reach for all and moreStill A Stranger, hidden in the dark
Still A Stranger, tearing me apart
Still A Stranger, heart is growing cold
Still A Stranger, a lost and killing soulI wish to see the sun
To hear I love someone
To feel the love inside
To not have wished to dieThe space I hold you in
A secret memory
I'll teach you all my sin
You reach for all and moreStill A Stranger, hidden in the dark
Still A Stranger, tearing me apart
Still A Stranger, heart is growing cold
Still A Stranger, a lost and killing soul
