

Black And Blue

Brand New Sin

Hard to believe in something you just can't see
Hard to tell yourself sometimes its just me
Hard to believe ourselves when its all inside
Hard to tell yourself when your full of pride I know you don't believe it
Damnation's almost through
I've almost lost what's all me
We've battled hard
We're black and blue Hard to push away all your fears
Hard to recapture all those years
Hard to see with blinders on
I don't care no cause now I'm gone I know you don't believe it
Damnation's almost through
I've almost lost what's all me
We've battled hard
We're black and blue
