

Soulmates

Placebo

The sea's evaporating, though it comes as no surprise
These clouds we're seeing, they're explosions in the sky
It seems its written, but we can't read between the lines
Hush, its okay, dry your eyes, dry your eyes
Soulmate dry your eyes, dry your eyes
Soulmate dry your eyes, 'cause soulmates never die
This one world vision turns us into compromise
What goods religion when its each other we despise
Damn the government, damn their killing, damn their lies (It's okay)
Dry your eyes
Soulmate dry your eyes, dry your eyes
Soulmate dry your eyes, 'cause soulmates never die
Soulmates never die
Soulmates never die
Soulmates never die, never die
Soulmates never die
Soulmates never die
